Cities open their account in Swachh Survekshan 2017, ahead of actual survey

New Delhi | November 15, 2016: The Swachh Survekshan 2017, to be conducted by Ministry of Urban Development (MoUD) in January 2017 to rate cities on various cleanliness parameters, is seeing enthusiastic preparation by cities, competing with each other for the title of 'cleanest city'. Of the 500 cities that will be ranked under Swachh Survekshan 2017 (SS 2017), 31 cities have already 'opened their accounts' in Swachh Survekshan 2017, with extensive press coverage of various fortnightly thematic drives undertaken by them. A list of the 31 cities are given in the annexure. While Aligarh currently tops the list with the maximum coverage on the thematic drives, million plus population cities come later - Vasai Virar follows a distant second, and then by Hyderabad and Gurgaon.

Under Swachh Survekshan, 5 marks have been reserved for cities who have actively undertaken various activities, with citizen participation, during various fortnights on specific themes. The marks are awarded based on reports by the local media (press, TV) in the cities.

Cities which have not yet had any press coverage till now need not despair, however. In the fortnight of 16th – 30th November 2016, the theme of cleanliness drives will be focusing on community and public toilets. The Ministry of Urban Development (MOUD) has advised all municipal corporations and urban local bodies to carry out extensive drives focusing on making all existing community and public toilets in their cities fully functional and clean, laying foundation stones for new community and public toilets, organizing camps for distributing pending payments for individual toilet beneficiaries. Cities have been advised to ensure widespread press coverage for these events during the upcoming fortnight, which will also fetch them scores during Swachh Survekshan 2017.
