Sub: Entry and Completion of Left out households (LOB) in Baseline Survey 2012-13 in IMIS and construction of toilets in such households

Sir/Madam,

With ref to the subject cited above, it is further stated that as on 9.11.2018, against the total in-principle approval of 95,26,433 LOB households, only details of 4,61,996 households have been entered on IMIS of SBM(G). State/UT-wise details is at Annexure. In light of the increased demand for toilets for households left out of baseline survey from States and limited resources available with the Ministry, following decisions have been taken to steer the implementation of toilets for households left out of baseline survey:

1. That the approval for total toilets for left out of baseline households for a State will be based on the total names of households entered in the prescribed template for entry of LOB in the IMIS of the SBM-G till 30th November 2018, out of the total number provisionally approved by the Ministry.
2. The financial assistance to States will be limited to the number of toilets built and reported in the IMIS of the SBM-G by the State till 31st January 2019.
3. States are advised to fast track entry of names of households left out of baseline in their States and ensure completion of toilets for approved households by 31st January 2019 to secure funding from Ministry.

Yours faithfully,

(Arun Baroka)
